BEELIN, Aug. 15 .- The North German Gazette, Bismarck's organ, referring to the impending meeting of the German Colonial company, says angry protests against the action of the British officials is politically undesirable. England, the Gazette says, will eventually set matters right. If says, will eventually set matters right. If Germany had been consolidated she might have pointed out the weighty objections against the German Emin relief expedition. Germany would regret the expedition adopting political aims or encroaching on British spheres or interests. England's triendship was of more value to Germany.

HOME TESTIMONY.

HELENA, Oct. 7, 1887.

I was suffering from an unusually bad cough, my lungs were sore and congested, and I consulted one of the best physicians in Helena, whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became slarmed, and at the elieve me. I became slarmed, and at the consulting of a friend warphased a battle of the component of suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.
